

Title: Common Expressions with "Have"

Summary: This lesson covers common expressions with the verb "have," including phrases with "have had," "have to," and "have got."

Notes:

- "Have" is a versatile verb that can be used in many situations and with different meanings
- "Have had" is used to describe a past experience, as in "I have had lunch already"
- "Have to" is used to express obligation or necessity, as in "I have to do my homework"
- "Have got" is a common phrase in spoken English that means the same as "have," as in "I've got a cold"
- Other expressions with "have" include asking for permission ("Can I have a look?"), making polite requests ("Do you have a moment?"), and expressing well wishes ("Have a good journey!")